History of Oktoberfest

Oktoberfest originated on October 12, 1810, in celebration of the marriage of the crown prince of Bavaria, who later became King Louis I, to Princess Therese von Sachsen-Hildburghausen. The world's largest beer festival is held annually in Munich, Bavaria, Germany. The mayor of Munich taps the first keg to open the 16-day festival, which attracts over 6 million people who consume over 1.5 million gallons of beer and more than 200,000 pairs of pork sausage during the extravaganza. While the event welcomes native Germans dressed in Dirndls and Lederhosen, visitors to the annual event come from all over the world.
