Revitalizing the Inn for the New Era

Although new forms of travel helped make the old public house unnecessary, the William Penn Inn was one of the few area hotels to remain active. In 1900, Algernon "Jerry" Yothers leased the inn from the Acuff estate and implemented extensive renovations. He built stables that boasted "pure artisan well water and electric lights", according to the newspapers of the time. He also built a third story and added a two-story porch, dramatically changing the face of the tavern.

In 1920, Nicholas deWilde bought the inn and reopened it with a gala celebration. Drawing from his experience traveling abroad, deWilde based the foundation for his new restaurant on his passion for the service and surroundings offered in London's gentlemen's clubs. It was deWilde who collected and framed many of the old photos and mementos that are still displayed at the William Penn Inn today.

The Kubach family took over the inn in 1977 and later sold it to Peter R. Friedrich, who has been the proud owner since 1981. With his European training and background, Friedrich brought the renowned landmark into the 21st Century as the oldest continually operated country inn in Pennsylvania.
